

1st IJDS SYMPOSIUM

Driving the Intelligent Vehicle

Driver-Vehicle Systems in Advanced Environments

14 & 15 June 2017 - Haarlem, The Netherlands

The International Journal of Driving Sciences (IJDS), an initiative of HAN University of Applied Sciences, proudly welcomes you to the 1st IJDS symposium “ Driving the Intelligent Vehicle”.

The symposium takes place on 14 and 15 June in Haarlem, The Netherlands. In this symposium, intelligent vehicle technologies integrate with human factors in applied research. Researchers and engineers from academia, industry and government meet and present their latest findings and state-of-the-art technology. The first presentations start on 14 June at 13:00h and will be followed by a dinner in the evening. The symposium ends on 15 June with the Award for Young Talent and drinks & bites at 16:00h.

The symposium focuses on the following themes:

- Driver Vehicle Interaction
- Interaction between the Driver and Accident Avoidance Technologies
- Driver Vehicle Adaptation

Conversation session (optional)

On 14 June, prior to the symposium the conversation session “Breaking Contradictions of Driving Automation” is organized. This conversation session investigates controversial topics through interactive case study reviews. Experts in the field introduce the case studies. Do note that places are limited to 70 persons. Registration is required.

Pitches Young Talents

We want to encourage young talents to become more active and visible. As such, talented Bachelor or Master students are given a platform at the IJDS Symposium where they present their project or thesis related to the symposium topics, in the form of an elevator pitch. The best elevator pitch will be awarded a prize based on a voting by the audience.

Program

Wednesday 14 June

10:00 Conversation session “Breaking Contradictions of Driving Automation” (optional)

12:00 Walk in lunch

13:00 Presentations: plenary and parallel sessions

19:00h Dinner

Thursday 15 June

09:00 – 16:00h Whole day presentations followed by a closure reception

You will find the (preliminary) program for both days here.

Travel & Accommodation

The symposium, as well as the dinner will be organized at the Philharmonie, Lange Begijnestraat 11, in Haarlem, a charming music hall located next to the town square and the St. Bavo Church. The medieval city hasn't lost its old historic character: small courtyards, plazas, canals and churches dominate the historic center. Haarlem is situated at 20 km from Amsterdam and easily attainable from Schiphol Airport.

Block bookings have been made at several hotels, all nearby the venue in the center of Haarlem. Hotel bookings for one of these hotels must be made by using the booking form on the symposium website. Block bookings expire on 1 May 2017. After the deadline rooms still can be booked based on availability.

Participation fees

€ 435,- IJDS participant

€ 295,- Author/speaker

free Young Talent (accepted for pitch presentation)

Included: Conversation session (prior to the symposium), lunches, coffee breaks, dinner and closure reception.

All mentioned prices are excl. VAT.

Registration

For registration click here

For hotel rates and room reservation click here

We are looking forward to seeing you at the 1st IJDS symposium "Driving the Intelligent Vehicle" in Haarlem. You will be welcomed most cordially.

Saskia Monsma, Chief Editor IJDS
HAN University of Applied Sciences